The Friends of Somerset Archives

A group of regular users and supporters of the Somerset Archive and Record Service have formed a group to provide help and support to the Record Office and other archives relating to the historic county. The Friends will issue a regular newsletter that will cover details of new archive material deposited, details of Somerset publications, volunteer transcription and indexing projects, as well as organising group visits, lectures and activities. We encourage you to help and support with projects and events in any way that you can.

Somerset can boast one of the first archives in the country dating from 1605, and since then the records of people from all walks of life, from princes to paupers, have been safeguarded for future generations. If you would like to assist with the preservation and access of this long and continuing service provided to users of records of Somerset archives then please join our group.
